Records and Archives Centre

DEED OF GIFT

Office Use Only

No:

I
of

do hereby make a gift of the material specified in the attached schedule to The Corporation of the Synod of the Diocese of Brisbane ["The Corporation"] and its successor organisations.

Being the sole owner of the material, I give this material unencumbered to The Corporation and do declare that I make the gift of my own free will and without undue or improper influence.

Any copyright I may possess in this material is hereby assigned to The Corporation.

The Diocese reserves the right to allocate funds as it sees fit for the conservation and preservation of these records.

The material specified on the attached schedule shall be available to members of the public for inspection and use from the date of this deed, at the direction of the proper officer of the Corporation [ordinarily the Diocesan Archivist], with the exception of any item otherwise indicated on the attached schedule which shall be restricted from public use until the date specified in brackets after that time.

Items not retained by the Corporation shall be returned to me.
